One guy stood up for me on the Steam console and Loup locked his post
Then when I replied, he deleted mine
On the post he locked, he also spread massive lies
Said things I never did
Put words in my mouth
I can show you that page if you want

lhateTrains 12/07/2018
I believe he can't delete threads on the forum, so it's the only remaining option

TurtleShroom 12/07/2018
Yes, but he's been lying about me for years.
You have personally witnessed his lying.

How do you want to join without the agreement with the currently leading dev?

TurtleShroom 12/07/2018

Without what agreement?

Well, IIRC, there are two men over Loup.

Both of which never respond to anything, and both of which concurred with Loup's decree.

IhateTrains 12/07/2018

They are absent

TurtleShroom 12/07/2018

Not entirely.

You and those two men are the only people that can override Loup.

I don't know if you're scared or if you don't think I should re-join, but did you ever stand up for me against Loup?

IhateTrains 12/07/2018

We've been trying to contact Enlil for a long time

TurtleShroom 12/07/2018

To get rid of Loup's tyranny?

IhateTrains 12/07/2018

No, to discuss the mod issues
Enlil e.g. should have some missing code

TurtleShroom 12/07/2018

What's wrong with the Mod?

What's wrong with the Mod?
Ah.
Well, if I were on the development board, I could fix it.
I really need to update my branch to the current version.

IhateTrains 12/07/2018
How?

TurtleShroom 12/07/2018
Well, it depends on what the code is

IhateTrains 12/07/2018
Did he sent his versions to you?

If it's too complex, I'm screwed
No, he bought Loup's lies and hasn't spoken to me in years

IhateTrains 12/07/2018

He hasn't spoken to anybody in months anyway

TurtleShroom 12/07/2018

Is he still alive?

IhateTrains 12/07/2018

IDK

I hope

I don't want to divide the team. I know how ridiculous it sounds but I'm too important for the mod, so I don't want to leave the team

Why would you resign? (edited)

I don't think Loup would oppress you for standing up for me, Trains.
Although I wouldn't put it past him
Since he's that bad of a human being

lhateTrains 12/07/2018

And I'm not interested in "overthrowing" the old devs because good or bad, they are official and recognised by all

I didn't really make a rant when you were thrown out, so it's that's what you mean by standing up the no

I still support you being in the mod

Then tell Loup that!
You know full well I disagreed with that guy who wanted to steal the Mod to stick it to Loup (ed
I told him flat out I wanted no part in that.

 IhateTrains 12/07/2018
Yes, I know, I've seen that discussion
But I think the discussion about you should be public/not in place where Loup can block it

 TurtleShroom 12/07/2018
That can't be done on Paradox forums
If you try and debate Mod leadership you get crucified
I accidently stepped in it with the Avatar Mod
I got banned for days

Crucified?

 TurtleShroom 12/07/2018
Metaphorically.
Anyone who causes "drama" or politics over the Mod- to any degree - will get blown out by Paradox.
They have a zero tolerance policy for it.
That means we can't do it on Paradox.
If you want to help, though, you can tell Loup not to delete my posts in the Steam Console discord and say that I deserve to reply to his attacks against me.

 IhateTrains 12/07/2018
Ok, I could post something like this if you opened a thread
Steam thread

I'll think about revisiting it down the line. I'll have to find the original post Loup wrote and then I will have to completely rewrite my defense, because I didn't save it. (I thought Loup wasn't such a bad person and he would deny me my say after he lied about me. I was wrong.)

In the meantime, you should make it clear to Loup that you want me back on the Mod.

No need for a rant or personal attacks

You just need to tell him the truth.

IhateTrains 12/07/2018

IMO instead of continuing the conflict you should try to find agreement
I know it's hard or impossible

TurtleShroom 12/07/2018

I tried years ago.

He deletes anything I write

I disagree about writing to him, as I said it should be public
You will have no chance if you don't try

TurtleShroom 12/07/2018

I will eventually try again, but I'll have to find the posts and write my reply. (edited)
